

Position: HIE Integration Analyst

Responsibilities:

- Plan, test, execute, and manage the integration of new applications and new data sources into the existing infrastructure, system, and software within the HealthConnections environment
- Develop, maintain, and/or debug interface channels and web services
- Collaborate with management team, technical team members, end users, and other stakeholders for system support
- Review, analyze, and report on the effectiveness and efficiencies of the existing systems
- Continue to build and maintain technical documentation for internal and external use
- Provide on call support, with other team members
- Perform other duties as, assigned

Qualifications:

- 1-5 years of systems and data integration analysis
- Experience working within healthcare, a plus
- College degree in Software Engineering, Computer Sciences, Information Management, etc. or equivalent experience
- Investment in company goals and willingness to go above and beyond
- HL7, JavaScript, Web services and XML experience preferred
- Solid experience with system integration, database, application development, file formats, workflow management, and system testing
- Strong analysis, issue identification and resolution skills
- Ability to develop and manage team collaterals
- Ability to work on a team, providing strong team leadership and facilitation skills, as well as independently
- Ability to manage projects, prioritize own tasks and organize assigned work to completion
- Experience with vendor relationship management, a plus